First off, a big "thank you" to all that participated in this year's event. Fifty teams squared off June 27th – June 30th at Lakewood Golf & Country Club as Walker Bryant and his crew had the field ready for battle and in beautiful condition.

The tournament kicked off with the "Thursday Shootout." In this event we systematically kick out players on every hole until only one is left standing. Mother Nature decided to interfere about halfway through so all the players left standing moved on to Hole #7 for an old-fashioned winner-take-all, closest-to-the-pin competition. The big Winner was our 2018 Over-All Champion, Jordan Moore. The close second place finisher was Dan Waggoner.

Friday morning came and the practice round was in full gear. Everyone had time to get reacquainted with friends as they prepared for the main event. Friday night has become a favorite for the players, and now with the wives and girlfriends invited, the crowd was very large. The 3-ring circus began at 6pm with registration and a wonderful cookout hosted by Viam (Keith Hayes) and L&H Distributing (Hennigan Family). The putting contest complete with tree-lined fairways, sand bunkers and out of bounds markers heated up and the Grand Winner was a gentleman that has a reputation of not being a good putter. I guess Alan Jones put that rumor to rest as he scorched the field. Alan had a 60-foot attempt to win $5000 cash but missed it a hair to the right. The Cornhole Tournament was moved this year to the first Tee Box for better visibility. We had many teams compete with Shane Walling and Buddy Wooten walking away with the Cornhole Crown after defeating Jeff and Don Biniek in the finals.

At this point in the evening the fireworks presentation was fired up by Keith Hayes and his crew from Viam. They lit up the sky for almost an hour as everyone sat back and enjoyed the show. Another big "Thank You" to Keith and Viam for a spectacular show with no loss of digits or appendages for two years in a row.

The night was capped off by the "Night Golf Glow Ball Closest to the Pin" contest on the 18th hole. It was looking like Tommy Dennis was going to hold on to the prize until the last competitor of the evening stuck it 8 feet from the pin. Kudos to Daniel Blocker for his clutch shot to end the evening with a police escort.

Saturday morning and the main event had started. The live scoring had everyone scoreboard watching throughout the weekend as everyone tried to keep up with their flights. Big shoutout to Greg Gates (Coca-Cola) for providing product to keep us hydrated during the event. Thanks again to L&H Distributing for providing beer and water during the event as well.

Saturday night is always a big night with our Banquet Dinner that is attended by all players and significant others. There is always lots of chatter about the day's round and catching up with old friends and family. The drop-down screen flashed pictures of the 1st round throughout the evening. We called up all the past winners for a photo-op and the presenting of the winner's jackets to the 2018 Champions. (Jordan Moore and Jordan Haugen)

BUSY, BUSY, BUSY

That is the word of the month for June and July at Lakewood Golf & Country Club. It is so nice to see the club being used to its fullest during the summer months. Lots of activity at the pool, the restaurant is doing great, the golf course is in excellent condition, lots of parties and events and even the tennis courts are being used again. I am very proud of the staff for working hard and doing a better job for our members. We still have a way to go but I hope everyone is seeing the improvement.

Please take the time to check out our calendar and if you have any suggestions for events or activities you would like to see, please don't hesitate to let Jenn or myself know your thoughts. We are trying to create activities that YOU would enjoy and what better way to get ideas than from the members.

Speaking of ideas from our members - please download, print and fill out the survey that will help us determine what the membership wants going forward and to help us determine where we need to improve the most.

Please drop it in the mail slot in the business office. It is anonymous - though you can sign it if you wish.

Thank you for being a member,

Kenny Saunders, PGA

*The survey is a link in the Newsletter List on the web page - please download it, print, complete and return at your earliest convenience. Memberships that include two adults, please complete and return one for each, i.e., wife = 1 and husband = 1.

Your Golf Course Superintendent

Hello everyone,

Hope everyone is enjoying their summer and getting out on the golf course. The golf course is in great shape and the maintenance crew appreciates the kind words and comments that have been coming our way. It's still early in the summer but things are moving in the right direction.

I'd like to take this time to recognize my assistant, David Sweazan, who is leaving us to take an assistant position at Stones River in Murfreesboro. David has been a huge asset to our operation. If you see David around the course make sure to stop and wish him well in his next venture.

On the course we have gotten an early jump on controlling noxious weeds, mainly goosegrass. It is very difficult with as much common Bermuda as we have to stay on top of them but we are off to a decent start. Common Bermuda isn't dense and doesn't outcompete weeds like newer turf species. We are well into our fungicide program on greens and so far things are going well and they seem to be very healthy. Fungicides are sprayed on a weekly basis to keep a constant barrier against diseases that our greens are very susceptible to in the summer months. Most of these applications are made on Mondays when we are closed and almost all of them must be watered into the turf canopy since most of the diseases are soil born in nature. These applications can run in the thousands of dollars and provide up to 14-21 days of control depending upon the product's efficacy.

This time of year we implement a survive and advance strategy when it comes to our greens in hopes of having great putting surfaces come fall. We have raised the height of cut and have implemented more rolling, which is less stressful to the plant than mowing. Hope you have a great July and thanks again for the kind words, the crew has worked hard and appreciates the compliments.

2019 Tullahoma Chamber of Commerce Tourney

Girl Power prevailed at this year's Tullahoma Chamber Golf Tournament. Despite having to reschedule the tournament, there were still 27 teams competing. Hope Sartain and Tisha Fritz did an outstanding job with organizing the event. As you can already tell by the first sentence in this article, we are celebrating the performance of the women. The dynamic duo from The Chamber did everything from A-Z with help from the all-female Executive Board. There is a lot of behind the scene work done over many months to make an event like this successful. Kudos to all that helped with this event.

Out of the 27 teams came one group that stood out from the others. The L&H Distributing team was the only all-female team in the field. I have seen many, many golf tournaments in my day and I can honestly say I have never seen a team of all women win the overall tournament when 95% of the field were men. A huge congrats to Andi Hennigan, Terri Warren, Judy Farler and Mallory TeVrucht. These ladies shot a lights-out 58 to win the Championship Flight of the 2019 Tullahoma Chamber of Commerce Golf Tournament. When you see these ladies around the club, give them a big high five and job well done.

Also a big congrats to Smart Bank and Coca-Cola for winning the 2nd and 3rd flights. A huge shout out to all that participated and especially the sponsors that made this event successful for the City of Tullahoma.

July 28th: Corks & Crafts

If you have not attended a Corks & Crafts event, you have been missing out! Whether you have been busy, forgot, or are afraid to commit because you are less than crafty, now is the time! Each class is catered to even the least crafty or creative with customizable options for the very crafty. This month, we are lucky enough to have Millie Saunders walk us through the art of clay! In case you are not aware, Millie is beyond talented. Some of her artwork can be found hanging in our business office. This will be a beginner's class with all materials provided including a glass of house wine for additional inspiration. The cost of attendance is $20 per person. You must RSVP by Saturday July 20th in order to attend.

CORKS & CRAFTS

craft • sip • laugh • repeat

I am very excited to announce that this month's Corks & Crafts will be hosted by Mrs. Millie Saunders. Millie is not only our local computer guru but a very talented artist as well. She can often be seen sporting a fabulous new piece of jewelry that she not only designed, but hand crafted. Lucky for us, she has agreed to share her talent and aide attendees in an easy to follow tutorial. Millie will be making personalized kits with everything you will need to decorate your own herb pot or pencil pot.

I recently tested this tutorial having almost zero experience with clay and can attest to its simplicity. Millie promises this is easy peasy. There will be lots of different colors of petals and leaves available.

Cost per person will be just $20 and will of course include all materials and a glass of house wine for additional inspiration. Be sure to reserve your spot today as we will have limited availability. All reservations must be made on or before Saturday July 20th and can be made in person, by phone or via email at events@lakewoodgcc.com.
